Oral Exams for MM Non-Thesis Students (Performance, Conducting, etc.)

MM students who do not write a thesis meet with the advisory committee for the Oral Examination, which serves as the culminating event at the School of Music. By this date, all coursework, recitals, and lecture/recitals must have been completed. Oral Exams are scheduled in late November and in early April.

Fall 2018: November 12–15 (November 30 is the last day to report results.)
Spring 2019: April 8–11 (April 19 is the last day to report results.)

Please check the Graduate School's "Student Deadlines" calendar (<https://graduate.ua.edu/current-students/student-deadlines/>) for other important dates.

MM Thesis Deadlines

Submission by the following deadlines DOES NOT guarantee graduation by the term indicated.

Earlier submissions are strongly encouraged, as a required rewrite of any component of the thesis project (proposal, first draft, or final version) may necessitate an extension into the following semester.

Late submissions will not be considered for the graduation term indicated.

MM Thesis proposal:

Anticipated spring or summer graduation: proposal due by Nov. 01 of preceding fall semester

Anticipated fall graduation: proposal due by Apr. 1 of preceding spring semester

MM Thesis draft for defense:

Anticipated spring graduation: draft due Feb. 15 of that same spring semester

Anticipated fall graduation: draft due Oct. 01 of that same fall semester

MM Thesis defense and oral exam:

NOTE: MM comps, recital, lecture or lecture-recital, and thesis must be completed by the defense.

Defense dates will be set no later than three days before the date for submission of documents and manuscripts set by the Graduate School. In fall semesters, this date is usually October 27; in spring, near mid-March; for the $61 option*, the last day to turn in semester grades. These dates are available, usually one year in advance, at <https://graduate.ua.edu/current-students/student-deadlines/>. Unfortunately, they often fail to take into account fall or spring break, and defenses must be scheduled earlier in some semesters than in others.
